AN IHG® HOTEL
BARUNA BALI

Discover these fun facts about Bali with your travel buddies!

Although there are a lot of different languages and dialects spoken all over Indonesia, Bahasa Indonesia is the country's official language. Most Balinese residents speak 3 languages: Balinese, Indonesian, and English.

Activity: Learn how to say "hello" in Balinese.

Did you know that you can find dolphins in Bali? There is the Southeast Asian spinner dolphin, the spotted dolphin, the Fraser's dolphin, and the Risso's dolphin.

Activity: Go for an early morning dolphin tour in Lovina to see what you can spot!

Mount Agung and Batur are the two towering peaks of Bali, and these volcanoes are still active! Gunung Agung, as it is locally known, last erupted in 2017, while Mount Batur last erupted in 2000.

Activity: Can you draw a picture of a volcano?

Bali has both white and black sand beaches. Black sand beaches are created from the ashes of nearby volcanoes.

Activity: Have a picnic and fly kites with your family on the many beaches around Bali.

One of the main staples of Balinese food is rice, and rice farming plays an important role to their culture.

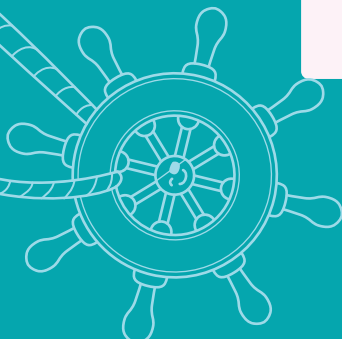

Activity: Visit the Subak Museum and learn all about growing, preparing and cooking rice.
